

INFORMATION SESSIONS FOR REFUGEES AND ASYLUM SEEKERS

Welcome to New South Wales!

TAFE NSW is the largest organisation for vocational education and training in Australia.

We are currently offering government-subsidised courses (this means no cost for the course). If you are a refugee and/ or an asylum seeker and you hold a particular visa you may be eligible for fee free training for skill sets and qualifications up to and including Certificate IV across a range of courses including:

- + Aged Care
- + Child Care
- + Business
- + Hospitality
- + Fabrication, Welding and Engineering
- + Beauty
- + Children's services
- + Computing skills

We also offer English courses and Foundation Skills like reading, writing, listening, speaking and learning skills taught in a way to help you with the study or work area you are interested in.

Please attend one of our information sessions to learn more about your study options, meet with our teachers, and receive assistance from our support staff. Make sure you bring a copy of your visa information. We are here to help you.
